

PREVENTION OF PROFILING

ORAU supports continued efforts to prevent profiling in any form. Prevention of profiling is essential to promoting justice, equality, and cohesion in the workplace. Profiling of individuals is in violation of the Constitution and perpetuates inequities.

Further, ORAU will enforce the Prevention of Profiling policy and all policies that protect individual's rights to a safe work environment without fear of profiling based on race, religion, or national origin. ORAU will be fair in its' business practices and subjecting individuals to unfair and discriminative practices will not be tolerated.
