

Scott Lucas, Ph.D.
President - Elect
National Coalition of Advanced Technology Centers
(NCATC)
Wichita State University Tech

Dr. Scott Lucas, President for the National Coalition of Advanced Technology Centers and WSU Tech Vice President of Aviation, Manufacturing, and Institutional Effectiveness. Dr. Lucas is in his third year on the NCATC board and hosted the 2023 NCATC Annual Conference in Wichita. He has been with WSU Tech since 2003, spent 10 years in Institutional Research (8 years as the Director), and has been an Academic Vice President since 2015 guiding many of WSU Tech's Career and Technical Education initiatives. Dr. Lucas is a member of the Advanced Robotics in Manufacturing-Education and Workforce Advisory Council, member of the education committee for the Association for the Advancement of Automation, 1st Vice President of the Wichita Manufacturing Association, Past President of the Kansas Council on Workforce Education, a member of the Regional Manufacturing Council for Technical Education in Wichita, member of USD 259-Wichita Public Schools Strategic Advisory Council, and serves on the District Advisory Board for the City of Wichita-District 6.